Slammer Team Québec takes the 2013 Commish’s Cup at Casselview Golf & Country Club

First Québec victory in tournament’s seven year history

July 15, 2013 – Casselman, Ontario. 10 teams of 12 golfers took on Casselview Golf & Country Club’s freshly-cut and impeccable greens in a quest to dethrone the 2012 champions, Team Falcon Ridge, but in the end, captain Fernand Asselin and Slammer Team Québec came out on top with a stunning 62 points, nine more than runners-up Slammer Team West.

This was Team Québec’s sixth attempt to secure the cup, after placing 3rd in 2012. Members/pairings for Team Québec were as follows: Ricky Coulombe & Justin Riopelle; Pierre-Luc Caron & Greg McComb; David Windsor & Nolan Windsor; Bryan Trussler & Sharon Windsor; Peter Tremblay & Bob Pepin; Sheldon Weatherstone & Laura Garnett.

Conducted by Executive Golf, the Commish’s Cup is the Slammer Tour’s most significant team event of the season with players from both inside and outside of The Slammer Tour itself. The event is always held in mid-July at Casselview Golf & Country Club. It’s a match-play competition consisting of a two-person scramble, followed by a two-person best ball, and two singles’ matches. Each partner team had the chance to generate as many as 14 points and overall results are combined 12-person team totals: two points for the partner scramble; four points for the partner best ball; and two points for both singles matches (total of four per player).

“All teams had to have combined scoring averages of 85 or more in order to be eligible”, said Jamie Ryan, Executive Golf president. “This levels the playing field and keeps the event open for players of all skill levels.” The golf course was in fabulous shape, according to Ryan: “As always, Casselview’s large greens were impeccable and the ball was rolling beautifully.”

For the second straight year, Slammer Team Central’s scoring average was the highest – coming into the event – and although they are considered perennial underdogs and expected to come in dead last, they took 5th place, illustrating that what really matters is what game you bring to the actual event. According to Team Central’s Captain, Terry Benson, “I guess we just know how to grind it out and make the best of it, even when we’re expected to come in last.”

Five guest teams brought their own teams and competed in 2013. Slammer Tour members battled it out in the weeks leading up to the event to earn a spot on the team by achieving a top rank within their region, or were acquired as a captain’s picks.
