December 7, 2014 – Ottawa, Ontario. Local golf club, Falcon Ridge on Friday hosted the 2014 Slammer Tour Slammies where a variety of awards were presented at the close of the outdoor golf season. Known as The Slammies, the ceremony featured a murder-mystery play intertwined with the awards presentation and multi-course dinner. Slammer Tour Members had to have played a minimum of 10 events in the season in order to be eligible for the awards.

Conducted by local golf company ClubEG (executivegolf.ca), The Slammer Tour is the Ottawa-Gatineau region’s match-play golf league for players of every skill level, from beginner to pro. Although the Tour was founded in 1997, 2001 saw the addition of the first “Slammies” ceremony and the complete results from the past 14 years can be found under the “Awards” tab at slammertour.com.
